Agree to Brad's AC Performance Policy:

- All pricing quoted by email, phone, or the website is subject to change.
- Estimates are written after a thorough inspection of your components. A new estimate will be written and the customer will be contacted if previously unforeseen parts or services are required to complete the work.
- Customer service is our number one priority, authorization by the customer is required before any work will proceed or be completed
- If service is declined after the estimate has been written, there will be a fee charged for estimate/teardown to cover labor.
- Payment method is to be provided upon approval of the estimate to continue with service
- Balance is due in full before pick up or delivery counts over 30 days past due may accrue interest charges.
- Brad's AC Performance is not responsible for any customer components at 90 days from the completed invoice date.
- Brad's AC Performance is not responsible for any items lost or damaged in transit.
